

CVEC Facts for 2001

CLASSES: There have been 6 classes offered each term (with 2 given twice during the same term) for a total of 20 classes for the year.

FACULTY: 20 different faculty members have offered courses.

WINTER

Bardwell Smith	Up the Down Staircase: Pilgrimage in Ireland, Spain, Sri Lanka, and Japan (17)
Ruth Hansen	An Introduction to Biblical Archeology (16/15)
Fred Gonnerman	Learning How to See with your Camera (7)
Jim Reiley	Presidency II: The New Kid on the Block (15)
David Maitland	Aging's Transitions (5)
Ron Ronning & William Child	Musical Forms (14)

SPRING

Henry Fritz	American History: Civil War to the Present (14)
Bill Woehrlin	Ideologies of our Time (13)
Ray Jacobson & David Lyon	Space and Time: Three-dimensional Language of Architecture and Sculpture (16)
Marion Hvistendahl	Greek Mythology and its Relevance Today (83)
George Soule	Modern and Post-modern Men: E. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby and the hero of John Fowles' The French Lieutenant's Woman (9)
Eleanor Zelliot	Travel Literature (12)

FALL

Jim Wolf	Thomas Mann Short Stories (13)
Henry Fritz	Making US Indian Policy, 1776-1988 (19)
Reidar Dittmann	Nineteenth century European Painting: From New-Classicism to Post-Impressionism (17/16)
Stan Frear	The Short Fiction of William Faulkner (14)
Richard Bodman	Reflections in a Chinese Mirror (15)
Erling Jorstad	Almost Heaven: Religion in America Today (14)

STUDENTS: There have been a total of 344 students enrolled.

Winter = 89 Spring = (79) 147 Fall = 108

HOUSING: Classes have been housed on 5 different campuses around Northfield.

- 2 Carleton College
- 8 Northfield Senior Citizens Center
- 2 St Olaf College
- 6 Northfield Retirement Center
- 2 Northfield Public Library

CO-SPONSORS: CVEC has again co-sponsored the Carleton Lecture series. This years fall series examined what literature, music and art can tell us about a community or culture.