

CVEC Facts for 1998-1999

CLASSES

There have been six classes offered each term for a total of eighteen classes for the year.

FACULTY

Eighteen different faculty members have offered courses.

FALL

|                    |                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| William Narum      | The Moral World of C.S.Lewis (16)                                                                           |
| Bardwell Smith     | The Japanese Garden (16)                                                                                    |
| Ann Mikkelson      | Understanding Today's Youth: Barriers &amp; Solutions (12)                                                  |
| Rikki Kolbl Nelson | Charting Your Journey: Art Book of Memories (9)                                                             |
| Constance Sansome  | Minnesota's Rocks, Landscapes, &amp; Vegetation (13)(Another session given in Cannon Falls, 9 students) |
| Marion Hvistendahl | Greek Mythology (17)                                                                                        |

WINTER

|                 |                                                                           |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Robert Flaten   | Politics, Policy &amp; Diplomacy in America (15)                   |
| Edward Sovik    | Architecture of Faith (13)                                         |
| James Reiley    | The U.S. Presidency: Beginning 20th Century to End (20) |
| Eleanor Zelliot | Snakes, Software and the Taj Mahal (India) (15)                    |
| Ron Ronning     | Beethoven Symphonies: Study with Conductor's Score (15)            |
| David Maitland  | Aging: The Agony and the Ecstasy (12)                              |

SPRING

|                  |                                                                    |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| William Woehrlin | Rise &amp; Fall (and rise again?) of the Soviet Empire (15) |
| John Welckle     | Intergenerational Cultural Conversations (13)               |
| Seymour Schuster | Symmetry in Art, Science and Mathematics (6)                |
| Richard Cantwell | German Romantic Opera (It ain't all Wagner) (8)             |
| Wayne Carver     | Fiction Writing (13)                                        |
| Duane Olson      | The History of Atomic Energy (6)                            |

STUDENTS

There have been a total of 243 students enrolled.

A number of high school students were also involved fall and spring terms.

Fall = 92

Winter = 90

Spring = 61

HOUSING

Classes have been housed on six different campuses around Northfield.
One course was offered in Cannon Falls.

- 3 St. John's
- 3 Carlton
- 3 St. Olaf
- 1 Three Links
- 3 Northfield Public Library
- 5 Northfield Retirement Center

CO-SPONSORS

CVEC has co-sponsored two programs this year.

"Landscapes of Sensibility", a 3 part series with the Abondia Center
Science Night at Carlton College, 6 presentations